PROJECTS

Med-Track: Prescription Analyzer with Alarm Scheduler

02/2023 - 05/2023

Tech Stack: Python, React.js, HTML5, CSS3, JavaScript, MySQL, RESTful APIs, Git

- Created a responsive web application using React.js, HTML5, and CSS3 that sets automatic medicine intake alarms based on prescription schedules. The app allows users to set alarms and order medicines directly through the platform.
- Built an OCR-based feature that converts handwritten prescriptions into CSV format, extracts medicine intake timings, and automatically sets alarms. Integrated the front-end with MySQL to store user data and track prescription schedules.

Event-Pro

10/2024 - 11/2024

Tech Stack: Java(Programming Language), Spring-Boot, Hibernate, React.js, HTML5, CSS3, JavaScript, MySQL, RESTful APIs, Git

- Developed a cloud-based event management platform using Java (Programming Language), Spring Boot, Hibernate, and MySQL, automating event creation, registration, and real-time updates for enhanced user experience and scalability.
- Built dynamic, responsive UI with React.js, HTML5, CSS3, and JavaScript, ensuring seamless user interaction across devices and smooth integration with backend systems through RESTful APIs.
- Optimized database performance with MySQL, handling large-scale event data efficiently, and managed version control with Git for effective collaboration and continuous integration.

ERP Web Application

10/2024 - 12/2024

Tech Stack: HTML, CSS, JavaScript, Node.js, Express, MongoDB, EJS Templates, Git, RESTful APIs.

- Made an ERP platform for managing faculty, student, and admin access with Node.js, Express, and MongoDB, enabling secure role-based data management.
- Created dynamic, responsive user interfaces using HTML, CSS, JavaScript, and EJS templates, ensuring smooth interaction across devices.
- Implemented version control with Git to streamline collaboration and maintain code integrity throughout the development process.
